

Fair Practice Code

a) INTRODUCTION

The Indian Banks' Association has drafted and circulated a voluntary code which sets the standards for fair practice standards when dealing with individual customers. Though voluntary, the standards set by the IBA in the Fair Practice Code provide valuable guidance to Banks in dealing with customers setting higher standards in our dealings with customers and promotes competition and market forces.

It is, and shall be, our policy to make credit products available to all qualified applicants without discrimination on the basis of race, caste, colour, religion, sex, marital status, age (over that of majority), or handicap.

Our policy is to treat all the clients consistently and fairly. Our employees will offer assistance, encouragement and service in a fair, equitable and consistent manner. We will also communicate our Fair Practice Code to our customers by placing it on the bank's website.

We shall ensure that charges/fees which affect the interest of the prospective borrowers are appropriately informed to the borrower. Terms and conditions pertaining to the facility will be conveyed to prospective borrowers. We commit that disputes arising out of the lending decisions will be appropriately resolved by a grievance redressal mechanism set up by us.

We will ensure that the implementation of the Fair Practice Code is the responsibility of the entire organisation. Bank's Fair lending practices shall apply across all aspects of our operations including marketing, loan origination, processing, underwriting, servicing, and collection activities. Our commitment to Fair Practice Code would be demonstrated in terms of employee accountability, monitoring and auditing programs, training and technology.

The Bank's Board of Directors and the Management Team is responsible for establishing practices designed to ensure that our operations reflect our strong commitment to fair lending and that all employees are aware of that commitment.

Kotak Mahindra Bank Limited is committed to providing service of the highest quality to its clients.

This Fair Practice Code applies to the following categories of products and services offered by us (currently offered or which maybe introduced at a future date).

- 1) Deposit Accounts - Current, Savings and Term Deposits

Statements

- a) We will provide our account holders statements at regular intervals to help the customer manage his / her accounts and check account entries. The eligibility for receiving statements and the periodicity will be determined by the type of account and will be as per our policy.
- b) In case an account holder requires statement at a frequency greater than the frequency defined by the product and our policy, we will make the statement available to the customer at a greater frequency but may charge for the service.
- c) An account holder can view last few transactions in his / her account through an ATM or through the Internet Banking facility provided by us.

Clearing Cycle / Collection Services

1. Time Frame for Collection of Local / Outstation Cheques / Instruments:

For local cheques presented in clearing credit will be afforded as on the date of settlement of funds in clearing and the account holder will be allowed to withdraw funds as per return clearing norms in vogue.

Cheques / Instruments presented in high value clearing (with the minimum value of Rs.1 lac or as determined by the local clearing house) shall be credited on the same day (applicable only in areas covered by high value / same day clearing).

For cheques and other instruments sent for collection to centres within the country the following time norms shall be applied:

- a) Outstation Cheques deposited at any of the bank branches and payable at the state capitals would be credited within a maximum period of 7 days. The days would be calculated excluding the intervening holidays at both the deposit location and the payable location.
- b) Cheques drawn on major cities (as identified by the Bank from time to time) would be credited within a maximum period of 10 days from the date of deposit. The days would be calculated excluding the intervening holidays at both the deposit location and the payable location.
- c) Cheques drawn on centers other than stated above will be credited within a maximum period of 14 days from the date of deposit. The days would be calculated excluding the intervening holidays at both the deposit location and the payable location.
- d) Cheque drawn on foreign countries: The bank is committed to ensuring that the instruments drawn in foreign currencies and payable outside India are collected in the quickest and most efficient manner.

Cheques drawn on foreign countries will be accepted for collection on 'best of efforts' basis.

Towards this the bank may enter into specific collection arrangements with its correspondent banks in those countries for speedy collection of such instrument(s). Bank would give credit to the party upon realization of proceeds in the bank's Nostro Account with the correspondent bank after taking into account cooling periods as applicable to the countries concerned.

Country/Location specific norms wherever stipulated will be specified for the foreign currency instruments and made known to the customers at the point in time of accepting instruments for collection.

The above time norms are applicable irrespective of whether Cheque/instruments are drawn on the bank's own branches or branches of other bank.

Bank would take all required steps to follow-up for early realization of cheques and hence the reasons for any realization with delays cannot be generalized and are required to be decided based on the particular circumstances on a case to case basis. In cases where Bank or its agents has delivered the outstation cheque/s to the clearing / drawee bank, the onus thereafter would be on the clearing bank to clear the instrument/s as per the time lines laid down by RBI. In the event of unjustified delays by the clearing / drawee bank, Bank would determine the eligibility of interest payments for delayed realization in such cases.

2. Immediate Credit of Local / Outstation Cheques / Instruments:

a) On a discretionary basis, for accounts that are maintained satisfactorily we will give immediate credit (and allow the customer to draw funds) for outstation cheques / instruments lodged by customers. The facility of immediate credit would also be made available in respect of local cheques at centres where no formal clearing house exists and in respect of outstation cheques / instruments upto Rs. 15000. Immediate credit will be subject to Service Charges announced by us from time to time.

b) This facility is discretionary and should not be taken as an on-going facility.

c) In the event of the cheque being returned unpaid, the bank shall recover interest in conformity with the applicable interest rate directive of Reserve Bank of India for the period the bank is out of funds.

d) Individual depositors desirous of availing facility may approach their base branch and carry out the necessary formalities for availing of the same.

3. Interest Payment for Delayed Collection

As part of the compensation policy of the bank, the bank will pay interest to its customer on the amount of collection instruments in case there is delay in giving credit beyond the time period mentioned above. Such interest shall be paid without any demand from customers in all types of accounts. There shall be no distinction between instruments drawn on the Bank's own branches or on other banks for the purpose of payment on interest on delayed collection.

Interest for delayed collection beyond the period specified shall be paid at the following rates:

a) Savings Bank rate for the period of delay beyond the time frame mentioned above for collection of outstation cheques.

b) Where the delay is beyond 14 days interest will be paid at the rate applicable for term deposit for the respective period.

c) In case of extraordinary delay, i.e. delays exceeding 90 days interest will be paid at the rate of 2% above the corresponding Term Deposit rate.

In the event the proceeds of cheque under collection was to be credited to an overdraft/loan account of the customer, interest will be paid at the rate applicable to the loan account. For extraordinary delays, interest will be paid at the rate of 2% above the rate applicable to the loan account.

It may be noted that interest payment as given above would be applicable only for instruments sent for collection within India.

4. Collection Services - Cheques / Instruments lost in transit / Cheques dishonoured / in clearing process or at paying bank's branch:

- a) While we will take all precautions to ensure timely collection of cheques / instruments deposited with us, in the eventuality of a cheque / instrument being lost in transit or in the clearing process or at the paying bank, we will immediately inform the same to the account holder. The account holder will be advised to inform the drawer to stop payment of the instrument; the account holder will be asked to take adequate precautions so that other cheques issued by him / her are not dishonoured due to non-credit of the amount of the lost instrument.
- b) The onus of lost instruments lies with us as the collecting Bank and not the account holder.
- c) We will reimburse the account holder reasonable expenses incurred for obtaining the duplicate instrument and interest on the amount of the Cheque for a further period of 15 days at the Savings Account rate where the reason for obtaining duplicate instrument is reasonable and beyond the control of the account holder.
- d) In case intimation regarding loss of instrument is conveyed to the customer beyond the time limit stipulated for collection, interest will be paid for the period exceeding the stipulated collection period at the rates specified.
- e) If the cheque / instrument have been lost at the paying bank, the amount reimbursed to the customer for the loss of the cheque / instrument will be recovered from the paying bank. In case, the cheque is lost by the bank, charges if any for recording the stop payment will be borne by the bank.

Cash Transactions

- a) We will make all attempts to ensure the correctness of cash dispensed at our counters; the customer is advised to count and ensure correctness before leaving the cash counter.
- b) We are committed to fulfilling the conditions of the RBI's Clean Note Policy; customers are requested to help us fulfil the norms set by the policy by depositing unstapled / unstitched notes and not writing anything on the face of the note.

Direct Debits and Standing Instructions

(The request for cancellation of payment should be given with enough notice to allow us time to act on the cancellation request).

Liability of Losses

- a) If an account holder acts fraudulently or without reasonable care and this causes a loss to the account holder, we will not be liable for the loss (this includes the precautions as defined in this Code).
- b) An account holder's liability to any misuse on his / her Debit or Credit Card is limited to what is indicated by us at the time of issuing the card; unless the account holder acts fraudulently or without reasonable care.

e) LOANS AND ADVANCES

- a) Before lending money, granting or increasing an overdraft, credit card or any other borrowing, we will assess the ability of the customer (borrower) to repay.
- b) Before granting or increasing an overdraft, we will inform the customer if the same is repayable on demand or otherwise.
- c) If we are required to reject an application for a loan, overdraft, credit card or any other borrowing the main reason/s for rejection will be conveyed in writing within a reasonable period of time to all the applicants irrespective of the amount of loan sought.

f) FURTHER ASSISTANCEComplaints / Grievances and Feedback / Suggestions - Internal Procedures

- a) We will guide customers who wish to lodge a complaint and also provide guidance on what to do in case the customer is unhappy with the outcome. Our staff will assist with any questions.

- b) A written or e-mail acknowledgement will be sent to customers by us as soon as possible on receipt of a complaint. Though all attempts will be made to do so immediately, we will ensure that an acknowledgement will reach within 2 weeks.
- c) After examining the matter, we will send a response as soon as possible (and in any case within eight weeks); we will also guide a customer on how to take the complaint further if the customer is not satisfied.

Banking Ombudsman Service and Other Avenues for Redressal

- a) If within 30 days of lodging a complaint with us, a satisfactory response is not received from us, the customer may pursue other avenues for redressal of grievances. The Banking Ombudsman appointed by the Reserve Bank of India under Banking Ombudsman Scheme 2006 maybe approached. Details of Banking Ombudsman are available in the Branch. Our staff will guide customers with the procedure in this regard.

Feedback and Suggestions

- a) We request our customers to provide feedback on our service to help improve services.

MONITORING

- a) We have a “Nodal Officer” to ensure compliance of the Code. Our internal auditing procedures make sure we meet the Code.
- b) The Nodal Officer will co-operate with the Standing Committee setup at the Indian Banks’ Association to monitor the “Bankers’ Fair Practice Code”.
