

China builds 5G infra along LAC in Ladakh

Fresh Construction Seen At Pangong Tso

New Delhi: As India and China continues to be a border dispute deadlock, Beijing has started laying fibre optic cables and installing other equipments for 5G network...

The intelligence agencies flagged that construction for 5G was noticed near Demchok area, one of the disputed sites at LAC... The Chinese People's Liberation Army troops were also found constructing barracks and other structures near the Pangong Lake.

China has made an attempt to change the status quo by putting up shelters and setting up a camp in areas that were under Indian control so far. Frequent meetings have been taking place in the security establishment to review the situation along LAC in Ladakh...

Terrorism is cancer; affects all like pandemic, says Jaishankar

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

New Delhi: Describing terrorism as a "cancer" that afflicts humanity in the same way as the pandemic does, External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar on Friday said...

Delivering the Darbari Shikhar Memorial Lecture at think tank, The Energy and Resources Institute (TERI), Jaishankar said terrorism challenges in the world are "urgent, pandemic and climate change" and these will test the seriousness of multi-lateralism.

'Situation in Ladakh as severe as 1962'

Shri Sena on Friday said the current situation in Ladakh is as severe as that of 1962, apparently referring to India China war...

Shri Sena said the current situation in Ladakh is as severe as that of 1962, apparently referring to India China war. He said the Indian Army will not allow the history to repeat.

The Chinese dragon's activities have not stopped, nor have their intentions changed. The Chinese and Indian Army may be undergoing discussions, but the gains of the two countries are stacked on each other along the Ladakh border.
