

Good start for turmeric ryots, price up by ₹600

Crop fetches ₹7,500-₹9000 per quintal, which is ₹600-₹800 more than the previous years

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Dharmapuri

THANKS to the bountiful North-East monsoon in 2021, turmeric cultivation has been a success in Dharmapuri. Farmers said turmeric is fetching them returns of ₹ 7,500 - ₹9000 per quintal.

Over the past few years, turmeric cultivation was severely hit due to drought. Last year, South West and North-East monsoon together poured down over 1051 mm of rainfall, which is almost 200 mm beyond the average rainfall which brought cheer to farmers as yield increased.

K Gopal, a turmeric farmer in Marandahalli said, "We spend a significant amount of money and time for a successful harvest. Most farmers rely on drip irrigation as water is scarce. But NE monsoon greatly reduced our burden and we harvested a good yield."

R Logesh, a farmer in Harur said, "Currently, the market is stable, so we are getting better prices. On average, a farmer can get between 15 to 20 quintals per acre. So farmers are already reaping good profits. It is only the beginning of the harvesting season and we are already selling turmeric for ₹7,500 to ₹9,100 a quintal. Earlier, it was ₹600-₹800 lower these rates," he said.

Sources said, the prices were between ₹6800 and ₹8,400 per quintal last year. Rates vary according to the type of turmeric crop, sources added. Agriculture marketing department officials said, "The demand for turmeric is high, so, prices are better than the previous years. We predict prices may increase further."

Hosur corpn resolves to expedite UGD project

The first meeting of Hosur municipal corpn council was held on Monday | EXPRESS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Krishnagiri

SIX resolutions were passed at the Hosur Municipal Corporation Council meeting held in the city on Monday like preventing plastics disposal in Hosur Lord Chandrachood-eswarar car festival, a new bus stand, expediting underground drainage system etc.

Most of the 45 councillors urged the corporation to supply water twice a week, desilting drains, set up road facilities, install CCTV cameras to prevent crime and control stray dogs' menace.

The first Hosur Municipal Corporation Mayor SA Sathya asked the authorities to take appropriate action over the demands. Mass cleaning and desilting drainage campaign would start next week in all wards, he added.

M Kuberan, ward 41 Councillor, said, youth consuming ganja has become rampant in public areas and urged the council to prevent it in HMC limit. G Sasidev, ward 18 Councillor, said groundwater in his ward near Mookandapalli is polluted due to industrial wastes.

Few other ward councillors asked the Corporation officials for door-to-door garbage collection. HMC Commissioner K Balasubramanian and other officials responded to their demands.

2010 CASE Six awarded double life term for murder in Namakkal

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Namakkal

MAHILA Court awarded double life imprisonment to six persons in a murder case on Monday.

A woman from the locality got a loan from Sivakumar, a financier in the locality, but could not repay the money. Sivakumar and his accomplice Amaiyen raped the woman's 18-year-old daughter and recorded the incident on mobile and uploaded it on social media in 2010. C Velusamy (42), a resident of Pallipalayam Agraharam and town secretary of CPM, helped the woman to lodge a police complaint, following which Sivakumar threatened Velusamy.

On March 10, 2010, Velusamy lodged a complaint against Sivakumar with Pallipalayam police. When he came out of the police station, a gang murdered Velusamy.

The case was transferred to CBCID following persistent protest by the CPM. They arrested Sivakumar, Bhoopathi, Rajendran, Military Ganesan, Arun Kumar, Anbalagan and Amaiyen. All of them secured bail.

Even as trial in the rape charge was on, Amaiyen was murdered and Bhoopathi went into hiding. Sivakumar was convicted last year and was sentenced to five years imprisonment.

The final hearing in the murder case took place on Monday, the court pronounced all six accused as guilty and awarded them double life imprisonment. A penalty of ₹20,000 was slapped on each of them.

Salem third in para-athletics competition

Call to allot zonal chairperson posts for SCs and women

M SABARI @ Salem

VARIOUS outfits have urged Chief Minister MK Stalin to provide reservation for Scheduled Caste candidates in zonal chairperson posts in city municipal corporations, elections for which will be held soon.

Though the position of zonal chairman is created for administrative reasons, it is one of the powerful posts in the administration. The zonal chairpersons will get more time to speak in the monthly council meeting and will be allotted a room in the zonal office to meet councillors. In fact, it is the zonal chairman take issues of people to the mayor and commissioner.

Councillors are lobbying with the party district secretar-

Mayor post in 11 of the 21 corporations were set aside for women. Women should be given representation at the zonal level to make them more powerful ies to be recommended for the post.

There are demands that some seats be reserved for Scheduled Caste councillors.

President of Ambedkar People's Movement A Annadurai said, "The government is providing reservation for SCs at the ward level. But there is no reservation in zonal chairman posts. Not a single SC councillor has become zonal chairperson in the Salem City Municipal Corporation (SCMC) so far. The Chief Minister, who talks about social justice, must allot a few zonal chairman posts in 21 corporations to SCs."

Further, there are demands that 50 per cent of zonal chairperson posts be allotted to women.

Makkal Needhi Maiam (MNMI) spokesperson R Anitha Sasikumar said, "Mayor post in eleven out of the 21 corporations were set aside for women. To make women more powerful in administration, they should be given representation at the zonal level also."

"The DMK says it provided 50 per cent reservation for women in local body elections. The Chief Minister must provide 50 per cent reservation for women in zonal chairman posts also. Only this will ensure equality in administration," Anitha Sasikumar said.
