Vijay Antony's tweet shocks fans

Chennai, Oct 13: Actor Vijay Antony's latest tweet has shocked some of his fans and has also raised speculations about his personal life. The 'Kodiyil Oruvan' star wrote in Tamil "If there is any problem in your family, try and fight it out among yourselves or go your separate ways. At the most even try to call a truce by falling at one another's feet. But never let a third person into your lives for they will make merry and finish you off". It is unclear if it is just a random thought of the actor or whether he is speaking about a particular issue.

front Vijay Antony's next release is likely to be the action thriller 'Agni Siragugal' directed by Naveen and co-starring Arun Vijay and Akshara Haasan. His upcoming films include Balaji Kumar's 'Kola', C.S. Amuthan's 'Ratham' and 'Pichaikkaran 2' directed by Vijay Antony himself.

Vijay Antony who started his career as a successful music composer made a smooth transition to an actor with 'Naan' released in 2012. For the past decade his growth as a bankable hero has been phenomenal and his market graph is on a steady trend always.

Taiwan reopens for tourists

Taiwan, Oct 13: Taiwan has reopened to tourists en masse after lifting some of the world's longest-lasting pandemic border controls.

Visitors began arriving on the island on Thursday without the need for quarantine or PCR tests for the first time in more than two and a half years.

Taiwanese officials welcomed the first group of visitors arriving on a flight from Bangkok shortly after midnight at the island's main international airport near Taipei.

Tourism Bureau Director-General Chang Shi-chung told reporters the island's reopening was a chance to "bring back to life and rebuild cross-border tourism".

Taiwan is the last major economy to lift COVID-19 quarantine apart from mainland China, which has stuck to an ultra-strict "zero COVID" policy despite the global trend towards living with the virus. Japan and Hong Kong recently dropped pandemic-related border restrictions as part of efforts to revive their this year cut the quarantine period from 10 and then seven days. Under the new border arrangements, visitors are still required to monitor their health for seven days and take rapid antigen tests.
