Party with neo-fascist roots wins Italy poll

ROME A party with neo-fascist roots, the Brothers of Italy, won the most votes in Italy's national elections, looking set to deliver the country's first far-right-led government since World War II and make its leader, Giorgia Meloni, Italy's first woman premier, near-final results showed on Monday. Italy's lurch to the far right immediately shifted Europe's geopolitical reality, placing a euro-sceptic party in position to lead a founding member of the European Union and its third-largest economy. Right-wing leaders across Europe immediately hailed Meloni's victory and her party's meteoric rise as sending a historic message to Brussels. Near-final results showed the centre-right coalition netting some 44 per cent of the parliamentary vote, with Meloni's Brothers of Italy snatching some 26 per cent. Her coalition partners divided over the remainder, with the anti-immigrant League of Matteo Salvini winning nearly 9 per cent and the more moderate Forza Italia of ex-Premier

Silvio Berlusconi taking around 8 per cent. The centre-left Democratic Party and its allies had around 26 per cent, while the 5-Star Movement which had been the biggest vote-getter in 2018 Parliamentary elections saw its share of the vote halved to some 15 per cent this time around. Turnout was a historic low 64 per cent. Pollsters suggested voters stayed home in part in protest and also because they were disenchanted by the backroom deals that had created the three governments since the previous election. AFP

15 KILLED AS MAN OPENS FIRE IN RUSSIAN SCHOOL

MOSCOW THE death toll has risen to 15 people, including 11 children, after a man opened fire on Monday at his former school in central Russia, authorities said. The attack was the latest in a series of school shootings that have shaken Russia in recent years and came with the country on edge over efforts to mobilise tens of thousands of men to fight in Ukraine. Russian President Vladimir Putin denounced the "inhuman terrorist attack" in the city of Izhevsk, the Kremlin said, adding that the shooter "apparently belongs to a neo-fascist group".

Investigators said they were searching his home and probing his "adherence to neo-fascist views and Nazi ideology". The region's governor Alexander Brechalov confirmed there were "casualties and wounded among children", speaking in a video statement outside school No88 in Izhevsk. Rescue and medical workers could be seen in the background, some running inside the school with stretchers. Brechalov declared a period of mourning in the region to last until Thursday. A city of around 6,30,000 people, Izhevsk is the regional capital of Russia's Udmurt Republic, located around 1,000 kilometres east of Moscow. The attack came just hours after a man had opened fire and severely wounded a recruitment officer at an enlistment centre in Siberia.

DEFENCE TIES India's Russia dependence due to US apathy: EAM

NEW YORK INDIA'S dependence on Russian defence equipment and the strong defence ties with Moscow is not because New Delhi did not approach the US to get those from the United States, External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar said Sunday. "One of the changes in our relationships has actually been the defence cooperation which has really come about in this current form maybe the last 15 years," Jaishankar told Indian Americans here during an interactive discussion with him organized by the US India Friendship Council and Foundation for India and Indian Diaspora Studies. "From 1965 pretty much for the next 40 years, there was no US defence equipment to India. This was, in fact, a period when the India Soviet, India Russia relationship became very strong," he said. "This was not due to a lack of trying on India's part. I can vouch for it myself. I've had my relatives, my father, my grandfather, they worked with the defence ministry. So, I know firsthand what great efforts were made over those years to try to make the US understand that it was in American interest to have a strong, united, independent, prosperous India," Jaishankar said. Commenting on America's relationship with Pakistan, Jaishankar said it has "not served" either of the two countries. "Very honestly, it's a relationship that has neither ended up serving Pakistan well, nor serving the American interests."
