KOREGAON BHIMA INQUIRY PANEL HEARINGS

Rashmi Shukla submits state intelligence dept's letters on Elgaar Parishad

CHANDAN HAYGUNDE
PUNE, FEBRUARY 4

Rashmi Shukla

IN HER affidavit submitted before the Koregaon Bhima Commission of Inquiry, IPS officer Rashmi Shukla has attached various letters of the Maharashtra State Intelligence Department (SID) regarding the Elgaar Parishad held at Shaniwar Wada in Pune on December 31, 2017, ahead of the 200th anniversary of the Battle of Koregaon Bhima.

On Friday, Shukla will be examined as a witness before the two-member commission headed by retired Justice J N Patel. The panel is probing the causes of the Koregaon Bhima violence of January 1, 2018, in which one person died and several others were injured. Shukla was the commissioner of Pune City Police at the time of the violence and is currently posted in Hyderabad as the additional director general of CRPF (South Zone).

According to Pune City Police, the Elgaar Parishad was organised by the banned CPI-Maoist, and the speeches delivered at the conclave and previous campaigns for the event were among the factors that triggered violence in Koregaon Bhima area on January 1.

In her affidavit, Shukla has attached multiple letters received from SID officials, giving information about the rallies, long march and other programmes organised in December 2017 by the 'Bhima timatum" and BAMCEF warned of unrest on January 1, 2018, if the plaque was not removed by December 31, 2017, claiming that names of "Brahmin, baniya and other caste soldiers" from 1965 and 1971 Wars on the Jaystambh was an "insult" and an "attempt to erase history (Of the Battle of Koregaon Bhima)".

Shukla has also submitted information shared by the SID about some social media messages before January 1, 2018, the FIR in Elgaar Parishad case that was later transferred to the National Investigation Agency, and the FIR against Hindutva leaders Sambhaji Bhide and Milind Ekbote at the Pimpri police station, which was transferred to Pune Rural Police.

Shukla has claimed in her affidavit that all possible preventive measures were taken on January 1, 2018, due to which there was no loss of human life and no major untoward incident reported in Pune City Police jurisdiction.

On October 22, 2021, the commission's lawyer, Aashish Satpute, had filed an application to call IPS officers Rashmi Shukla and Param Bir Singh as witnesses, saying it was necessary to bring forward intelligence inputs and all information received by the two officers. On receiving summons, Shukla had appeared before the commission on November 18 and sought time to file her affidavit.

'This cannot go on': High Court seeks Malik's reply to Wankhede father's contempt petition

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
MUMBAI, FEBRUARY 4

THE BOMBAY High Court on Thursday directed NCP Minister Nawab Malik to reply to a contempt plea filed by Dhyandev Wankhede, father of the former Narcotics Control Bureau zonal director Sameer Wankhede, which alleged that despite an undertaking given by the minister to the court last month, Malik continues to defame his family.

On December 10 last year, Malik had tendered an unconditional apology in the HC for "wilfully breaching" his undertaking given to the court that he won't be making statements against Dhyandev and his family. He had then assured that he would not make any comment against Dhyandev and his kin. The minister, however, had said that his statement or undertaking would not prevent him from commenting on the "political misuse" of central agencies and the conduct of their officers. The HC had accepted Malik's apology.

Dhyandev, in his contempt plea filed last month, said that Malik breached had the December 10 HC order that accepted his apology. Citing certain remarks made by Malik after December 10, he said, "These statements are specifically directed against the petitioner's son impugning his caste/religion and his personal integrity. Even assuming that these statements can in any manner be construed as comments on political misuse of central agencies and conduct of their officers in course of their duties, such conduct should be related to the duties hereafter performed, that is, after December 10. Aforesaid statements pertain to actions/omissions of petitioner's son much prior to December 10, 2021."

Claiming that Malik has willfully breached his undertaking, Dhyandev said he should be held guilty of contempt under the Contempt of Courts Act, 1971.

On Thursday, senior advocate Birendra Saraf, appearing for Dhyandev, said that such breach of undertaking by Malik is "repeatedly" taking place and every time there is a hearing before the caste-scrutiny committee, the minister tweets against his client.

Malik's counsel advocate Ramesh Dube said he would like to file an affidavit and point out that the statements made by the minister fall within the concession the court had given in its earlier orders.

The bench orally told Malik's counsel, "If you (Malik) are saying it (impugned statements in petition) in this way, then we will withdraw the concession. Directly or indirectly you (Malik) want to defame the man (petitioner Wankhede). What are you trying to achieve? We had asked earlier as well. We will give you an opportunity to file an affidavit but this cannot go on."

The court asked Malik to submit his affidavit by Saturday. It will hear the case next on Monday.

CGST office arrests firm owner for claiming ITC of Rs 10.68 cr

Mumbai: The Navi Mumbai Central Good and Services Tax (CGST) office has arrested the proprietor of a steel firm for allegedly claiming input tax credit (ITC) of Rs 10.68 crore in violation of norms. According to a statement issued by the department, Navnit Steels, a company that trades in steel and aluminium, has availed and utilised ITC on bogus invoices of Rs 60 crore. "A team of officers of anti-evasion, CGST, Navi Mumbai found that the taxpayer has availed and passed on fake ITC from various non-existing/bogus firms," the tax department said. A local court has sent the owner to judicial custody for 14 days. ENS

As Russia and the West led by the US up the rhetoric, a worried international community is watching the situation with concern. New Delhi is caught in between, as it has strategic stakes on both sides.

What are the risks involved, will it escalate, what are the windows of opportunity for de-escalation and what are its implications for India?
